

What you should know about the SEF Final

Environment

- It will take place on
 - Friday December 12, 2014 from 9:00am to 11:50am - normal class time and room
- No one can leave the exam before 30 minutes has passed
- No one can enter the exam after 30 minutes has passed (unless no one has left)
- The regular rules regarding food and drink apply
- You are allowed 1 double-side 8.5" X 11", handwritten cheat sheet
 - You can put whatever information on the cheat sheet you want ...
 - The handwriting on the sheet should be no smaller than an equivalent 10-point Arial font – you will be handing in your cheat sheet with your test answers
- Please bring in and return your SEF Midterm to Sean when you hand in your SEF Final Exam
 - The SEF Midterm should be used for study purposes for the final exam

Material Covered

- Any material covered in the course is fair game, although most of the questions will concentrate solely on the material since the midterm
 - You are not responsible for the AGFA-specific parts of Regulated Development
- It is expected that you have done the assigned reading, although it is not expected that you memorize the information
- The final focuses on 2 aspects of your time in SEF :
 - It will assess your general knowledge of the many topics covered in the course, and as well
 - It will focus on your understanding the material, not just regurgitating – you should be able to apply your knowledge as well

The Format of the Exam

- All questions are short-answer and paragraph-answer
- The questions total to 55 marks
 - The questions are grouped together in different sections and you will be instructed to answer a number of questions from each section
